The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, May 4 1704

From the Amſterdam Gazette dated May 6.

Warſaw, April 19.

PRince Alexander Sobieski arriv'd here the 13th, and the ſame Day made a Viſit to the Cardinal Primate, and afterwards to General Horn, and alſo to the Grand General with whom he Supp'd. The next day the Prince Supp'd with his Eminency. The ſame day, the 14th, the Palatin of Poſnania return'd from the Court of Sweden, with his Majeſty's Reſolutions as follows. I. That his Majeſty will execute the Inſtrument of Security he gave laſt year, without demanding any diſmembring of the Provinces and Territories of the Republick. II. That the Interregnum being declar'd, and a new King elected and Crown'd, his Majeſty will withdraw his Troops, and advance 300000 Rixdollars to the Army of the Crown, for the Republick. III. That Poland joyning their Forces with thoſe of Sweden, his Majeſty will let the Confederates have the Territories that ſhall be conquer'd. IV. That then his Majeſty will releaſe all the Priſoners, that are now in the Hands of the Swedes. The 16th the Congreſs met in his Eminency's Palace; and the Marſhal invited them to meet again the next Morning at 7 a Clock, to read and examine the whole Anſwer brought from the King of Sweden by the Palatin of Poſnania; which was done accordingly the 17th, and a Letter written by the Queen Dowager of Poland touching the Impriſonment of the 2 Princes her Sons was likewiſe Read, and an anſwer to it was reſolv'd upon. Yeſterday the Point of the Interregnum and of appointing a day for a New Election was debated, but the Congreſs could come to no Agreement upon it, on the contrary the Debate was manag'd with great Warmth, and many ſharp Speeches were made on this Occaſion. To Day the Cardinal Primate having found means to remove ſeveral Difficulties, a Reſolution was paſs'd to declare and publiſh the Interregnum, to Print the Articles of the Confederacy, and to ſend them to the little Diets that are to meet next Month. Then the Marſhal demanded by whom theſe Articles ſhould be ſign'd, it was anſwer'd the Cardinal Primate, the Marſhal, and two Deputies of each Palatinat; but the Marſhal affirm'd and inſiſted upon it, that it was neceſſary the Senators ſhould ſign them likewiſe; whereupon the Biſhop of Poſnania thought fit to withdraw out of the Aſſembly, as did alſo another Deputy. After this it was propos'd that a Deputation ſhould be ſent to the King of Sweden to inform him of theſe Reſolutions, and deſire him at the ſame time to make good his Promiſe, in exempting the Lands of the Confederates from all Contributions; but his Eminency judg'd that ſince the great Work was done, it would be ſufficient to acquaint the King of Sweden of theſe things by a Letter; which accordingly the Marſhal was directed to draw up, and it is to be read in the Seſſion that is to be held the 21ſt, before it be ſent. One of the Deputies proteſted to the Marſhal, that if the King of Sweden ſhould not keep his Word punctually, he would leave the Congreſs; and he offer'd to enter this his Proteſtation. This would have been ſufficient at another Time, according to the Laws, to interrupt the proceedings of the Aſſembly; but things are at preſent brought to ſuch a Paſs, that much more than this would be leap'd over. The Pope's Nuncio having receiv'd an Expreſs from Rome, with a Jubile for all thoſe who ſhall repeat a certain number of Prayers for the Safety and Proſperity of the King of Poland Auguſtus II. and of the Republick, he has ſent it to all the Biſhops of the Kingdom; but 'tis much queſtion'd whether his Eminency and the Biſhops that are of his Party will conſent to the publiſhing of it. The Nuncio will ſet out from hence to morrow, 'tis ſaid, to go to the Court, having no mind to be preſent at the Publication of the Reſolutions that were taken here to day. The King of Denmark has written to all the Senators, and in particular to the great General, to exhort them to Union and Concord, and not to declare againſt the King. An Envoy from his Daniſh Majeſty is on the Road, and has been delay'd in his Journey by an Indiſpoſition; he is going to the Court with credential Letters, to offer the Mediation of the King his Maſter, for quieting the troubles of the Kingdom, and accommodating things between the 2 Kings that are at War, and the Republick.

The News we have receiv'd from his Poliſh Majeſty's Camp is as follows.

Since the Loſs the Swedes receiv'd by our Cannon on their advancing to our Bridge at Pietrowin, General Reenſchild is retir'd towards Radom. The Caſtelan of Polanis is return'd from the Incurſion he made with 30 Troops on the Cardinal Primate's Lands lying about his Caſtle of Krylow in Ruſſia, whence he has brought away all the Corn, Cattle, Horſes, and 25 Pieces of Cannon that he found there. The Confederates for the King increaſe in number daily. The Diet of the Caſtellany of Chelm is broken up, and have ſent Deputies to acquaint the King with their Reſolutions in his favour, and to aſſure him that they will without delay advance a certain Sum of Money towards paying that part of the Army of the Crown which is in his Majeſty's Service, and a like Sum within a Month. The Nobility of the Palatinat of Sendomir are all mounted on Horſeback. The King has iſſued his Univerſalia, for the little Diets of the ſeveral Palatinats to aſſemble the beginning of next Month, that their Deputies may meet his Majeſty where he ſhall appoint the 20th of the ſame Month. The 10th a Courier arriv'd from Muſcovy, with advice, that 24000 Foot in 2 Bodies were actually come into the Neighbourhood of Smolensko, that one of them was actually on the March, and the other waited only his Poliſh Majeſty's Orders. Monſieur Smiegelski, Staroſt of Gneſne, is come hither, with ſome Swedes that he had taken Priſoners.

Warſaw, Apr. 19. 'Tis reported that Prince Alexander has declar'd he will not accept the Crown, if the new Election ſhould fall upon him; and that he had no other View in coming hither, than to uſe his beſt endeavours to procure the Liberty of the Princes James and Conſtantine. And 'tis rumour'd here that the King of Sweden is not at Heilsberg in Pruſſia, but incognito with the Body of Troops commanded by General Reenſchild.

From the Harlem Courant, dated May 10.

Warſaw, April 25. The King of Sweden in the Anſwer he ſent to the Confederates by the Palatin of Poſnania, tells them, that he leaves the Republick abſolutely at Liberty to elect whom they pleaſe for King, but adviſes them to chooſe a Native of Poland and not a Forreigner. The King of Poland continues in the Neighbourhood of Pietrowin, he has order'd his his Bridge of Boats to be carried higher up the River to Zawichoſt. The Cardinal Primate has ſent out Univerſalia for the little Diets of each Palatinate to meet the 15th of May; which Univerſalia are accompanied with a Letter from Prince Alexander Sobieski, touching the Seizure and Impriſonment of his Brethren, written in very pathetical Terms.
